What People Are Saying:

“ I was a bit nervous going into the reading because I was worried my son might not come through. Amy knew details about my son's passing that was impossible for anyone to know. She was able to provide with some clarity about choices that he made. She is very compassionate and I thank God for her gift. If you are suffering and need guardian and support, talk to Amy.
— Jackie

“ Readings can be tough due to all the emotions, but Amy truly puts any nervousness at ease with her humor & grace. I was able to connect with my family on the other side with such clarity. Amy has such a gift it's wild! I always go in feeling a little skeptical but it was a magical experience and also so much fun. Thank you!
